The Program
BEGINNING AND INTERMEDIATE POLISH

The Pittsburgh to Poland program entails studying the Polish language in Pittsburgh for six weeks, followed by an optional four-week stay in Kraków, where students will continue to study Polish. Alternatively, students who have completed the equivalent of one or more years of Polish language study may elect to do a 6-week program that takes place entirely in Kraków. Both abroad trips include meetings with Polish students, excursions in and around Kraków, and a three-day trip to Warsaw.
